

On December 2, 2010 we went to the Mississippi Children's Museum. It was a blast. My three favorite things were the Express Yourself Room, the Doll House and the Scrabble Board. In the Express Yourself Room, there were no rules. So that was very cool. That is one reason you should go to the Mississippi Children's Museum.

The Doll House was amazig. On the Scrabble Board it was blown up so you could see it better. You play that game with your friend. Thses are three wonderful reasons you should go to the Mississippi Children's Museum. The museum is also a great place for parties and great fun on the weekends and holidays.

If we liked it, you should too. So please go to a cool and grand place to have a lot of fun!
